

Securities Industry Conference and Luncheon 2011

Friday 7th October 2011
Royal Bank of Scotland Auditorium, Bishopsgate
09:30 - 14:30

This half day Conference will be chaired by Daisy McAndrew of ITV News (right). Daisy is the Economics Editor for ITV News, having previously served as Chief Political Correspondent, Press Secretary to Charles Kennedy and co presenter of The Daily Politics programme.

This year's programme will be of particular interest to you and will include:

- Global Economic Risks
 - The Global Regulatory Framework
 - 'FATCA in the Fire'
 - 'Equity Markets: As Good as Gold?'
 - 'Capital & Liquidity-Do European Banks have enough?'
 - 'Is Stress Investing Good for You?'
 - 'Securities Valuation-Lessons from the Credit Crisis'
 - 'City PR: Who Needs It?'
 - The Future for Back Office Outsourcing
- Exclusive Analysis
Clifford Chance LLP
Ernst & Young LLP
BullionVault
Morningstar
theAngelMarket
SIX Telekurs
Attila Consultants
Penson Financial

This Conference supports SSAFA (Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Families Association).

REGISTER TODAY

If you are an employee of an FSA registered user firm and would like to apply for a VIP complimentary place, please email vip@goodacreuk.com. Alternatively, places can be reserved for £295+VAT.

Why Attend?

- Hear from key Industry Speakers
- CPD hours can be collected from attending this Conference
- General industry update in just a few hours

Who Will You Meet?

- Finance Professionals
- Network with Industry peers
- Ask questions to Industry Experts
- Decision Maker's
- Head's of Departments

